GENERAL ORDERS
No. 13

HEADQUARTERS
DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON, DC, 14 June 1979

UNITED STATES ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS
(Short Title: USACE)

1. Effective 16 June 1979 the US Army Corps of Engineers is established as a major Army Command under the jurisdiction of Headquarters, Department of the Army, with Headquarters at Washington, DC, reporting to the Chief of Staff, Army for all military engineering matters and reporting to the Secretary of Army through the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Civil Works) on civil works programs.

2. The mission of Headquarters, US Army Corps of Engineers is to exercise command and operational control of and provide support to assigned engineer divisions, districts, research and development organizations and designated field activities engaged in world-wide military construction and civil works programs.

[DAMO-FDP]

By Order of the Secretary of the Army:

BERNARD W. ROGERS
General, United States Army
Chief of Staff

Official:
J. C. PENNINGTON
Major General, United States Army
The Adjutant General

DISTRIBUTION:
Active Army, ARNG, USAR: To be distributed in accordance with DA Form 12-4 requirements for DA General Orders.