2. By direction of the President, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved 9 July 1918, the Distinguished Service Medal (First Oak Leaf Cluster) for exceptionally meritorious and distinguished service in a position of great responsibility is awarded to:

Lieutenant General James L. Richardson, Jr., , United States Army. April 1963 to July 1965.

Major General Alvin C. Welling, , United States Army. January 1963 to July 1965.

II—SILVER STAR. By direction of the President, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved 9 July 1918, a Silver Star for gallantry in action is awarded posthumously to:

Captain Thomas I. Ledbetter, , Infantry, United States Army, distinguished himself by gallantry in action while engaged in military operations in Vietnam on 19 June 1964. As a Senior Advisor, Captain Ledbetter was accompanying a Vietnamese combat patrol on a search and clear operation when the friendly element engaged a strong hostile force which was defending a heavily fortified position. Although he sustained wounds twice while directing the attack on the enemy, he bravely remained in the lead position to organize and direct the assault against the hostile force. Throughout three vicious enemy attacks, he displayed fortitude, fearlessness, and forceful leadership which rallied the troops and encouraged them to withstand the violence of the enemy charge. Despite the overwhelming onslaught, he continued to lead the troops and personally engaged the enemy with outstanding effectiveness until his ammunition was expended. Captain Ledbetter's courageous actions, determination, and conspicuous gallantry are in the highest traditions of the United States Army and reflect great credit upon himself and the military service.

Sergeant Johnnie L. Fox, , United States Army, as Section Chief of the 3d Howitzer Section, C Battery, 2d Howitzer Battalion, 16th Artillery, distinguished himself by heroism on 4 November 1962, in the vicinity of Offenheim, Germany. When one of the Battery's self-propelled Howitzers developed a gasoline leak, caught fire, and continued to pump gasoline, the crew abandoned the hazardous vehicle. Although Sergeant Fox had not been working on the track at the time it caught fire, he voluntarily boarded the burning vehicle and removed powder canisters and small arms ammunition. Despite the extremely dangerous situation, he continued his courageous actions by participating in the fire fighting effort until the flames were extinguished. Through his prompt action, determination, and bravery, he prevented possible loss of life to personnel in the area and further damage to valuable government property. Sergeant Fox's heroic conduct is in the highest traditions of the United States Army and reflects great credit upon himself and the military service.
